DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 8-13 and 16-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. Regarding independent claims 8 and 16, the recitation of the "flap" valve system connecting the drying and cooling unit to the second batch mixer is not supported by the original disclosure. While, in the sentence bridging pages 3 and 4 of the original specification, it is stated that the dryer/cooler 8 is connected by a valve system 11 to the batch mixer 12, it is not disclosed that this valve system is a "flap" valve system.

Response to Arguments

3. The phrase "another valve system" is generic as to what type of valve system is required and is not limited to a "flap" valve system.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
